My Dad recently moved into his Independent Living apartment at Bishop Spencer Place on August 8th and he is doing so well. He really likes the way the apartment looks, and seems very happy. He loves that people are stopping by, and feels comfortable leaving his door open during the day. My family is easing back from coming by each day, as we really want him to get out and get used to the rest of the community. I am so pleased with how welcoming and nice everyone has been!
