

Bishop Spencer Place
Celebrating 15 Years

Best Retirement Community 2010

Small but popular, Bishop Spencer Place, walks off with GOLD honors here. Bishop Spencer, which opened its doors in 1995, offers active seniors ideal access to the Country Club Plaza, and its ties with PB&J Restaurants means there's no "institutional" food served.

About Best of Business Kansas City:

For 22 years, readers of Kansas City's premier business publication have been honoring companies, organizations and communities in the metropolitan area with their hand-written balloting for Ingram's Magazine's Best of Business Kansas City awards. That recognition is a powerful statement that Ingram's readers—many of them CEOs, C-level executives, business owners and key decision-makers themselves—recognize what truly stands out with other businesses, products and services.
